We are delighted to bring to the market this semi-detached family home, situated in a residential location and offered with NO ONWARD CHAIN. A practical family-friendly layout, this property presents an exciting opportunity for growing families, first-time buyers or those looking for a home with scope to make their own. It offers comfortable living space, while the property's character features provide a wonderful foundation for future modernisation and personalisation. Ideally positioned close to local shops, schools and excellent transport links, the home is well suited to both families and commuters. With the ability to move straight in and gradually update the property at your own pace, this is a home offering both immediate appeal and exciting potential for the future. Early viewing is highly recommended to fully appreciate the space, character and opportunity on offer.
