⚠ Agents Note – Holiday Park Information & Compliance

Prospective purchasers should be aware of the following park requirements, charges and company policies:

Site Rules & Fees:

Park rules and associated fees may be subject to change. Buyers are advised to check directly with the site office during their visit and request full written details of the current park rules prior to proceeding.

Re-Sale Commission:

A 15% commission on the achieved sale price is payable to the park on completion. This fee must be settled to allow the new owner to take occupation of the property.

Ground Rent:

An annual ground rent of £3,600.00 applies.

Water supply and sewage are included within this charge.

Utilities:

LPG Gas: Approximately £100.00 per bottle, purchased via the site.

Electricity: Charged by the site office as and when due.

All utilities are subject to the park's terms and conditions.

Registered Address Requirement:

Purchasers must have a separate registered residential address in order to buy on this park.

AML & Identification Checks:

Any buyer wishing to purchase the property will be required to complete a digital identification and source of funds check once an offer has been accepted. This incurs an upfront fee of £46.80 (£39 + VAT) per applicant in line with our company policy and Anti Money Laundering Regulations as imposed by HMRC.

Important Legal Notice to Purchasers

We act strictly as marketing and selling agents on behalf of the Park Owner and have no authority to vary, waive, or amend the terms of the Licence Agreement. Any purchase is subject solely to a formal written Licence Agreement between the purchaser and the Park Owner.

The caravan/lodge is sold for holiday and recreational use only and must not be used as a permanent or main residence. Ownership of the caravan does not include ownership of the land. An annual pitch fee is payable and subject to review in accordance with the Licence Agreement.

A resale commission (currently 15% + VAT of the achieved sale price, unless otherwise stated) is payable to the Park Owner on any future sale.

Park Requirements & Compliance

Purchasers are subject to Park approval and must comply with all Park Rules and statutory safety requirements, including:

Valid insurance

Gas certification

Payment of all pitch fees and associated charges

Failure to comply with Licence obligations may result in termination of the Licence and removal of the caravan from the Park. Any associated removal or reinstatement costs may be payable by the owner.

The Park Owner reserves rights in relation to breach, relocation of caravans, retention for unpaid sums, and dispute resolution (including referral to an Independent Surveyor or court).

Important Buyer Information

All statements, descriptions, and figures are provided in good faith based on information supplied by the Park Owner or third parties. These do not form part of any contract or warranty.

Purchasers must rely solely on the written Licence Agreement and are strongly advised to carry out independent checks and obtain professional advice regarding:

Pitch fees and review terms

Resale commission

Permitted use

Park Rules

Termination rights and ongoing obligations
