WHAT'S GREAT?

An outstanding first floor apartment with has been extensively improved and modernised by the current owner. An absolute MUST VIEW!

Oak Tree Court is an exclusive complex specifically for over 55's perhaps looking for a change in their pace of life and is situated in the heart of Kettering's town centre and this beautiful apartment is offered to market with NO CHAIN.

The development consists of two buildings each with internal lifts and is warden controlled.

There is also a sociable communal lounge where frequent events are held for those who wish to take part.

This two bedroom property is accessed from a communal hallway. The internal layout comprises; entrance hall, lounge with large opening into a stunning refitted high gloss kitchen which benefits from integrated appliances including fridge/freezer, oven, hob, extractor, washing machine and dish washer, expect to find two bedrooms, the master has plenty of storage with matching drawers, wardrobe space and over head storage, a superbly refitted shower room is easy and convenient with a double walk in shower.

Other benefits include new flooring, fabulous, neutral decoration throughout, spot lights to ceiling and a refitted water heater in the useful storage cupboard within the hallway.

In addition there is a secure intercom entry system along with an emergency pull cord providing access to the warden.

Outside there are communal gardens surrounding the grounds and also car parking for occupiers and visitors a like, on a first come, first served basis.

SELLER'S SECRET

I have had an opportunity to relocate slightly and have therefore decided to sell up and move on. It will certainly be hard to leave given all the work and effort put into making my home so good but the time feels right.

Why we like it....

Another lovely prospect for someone new. We will happily show you around to get a feel of what it has to offer.
