A handsome Victorian end-of-terrace home blending period character with everyday practicality, offering three bedrooms, driveway parking and a convenient location close to Dereham's town centre.

Set behind a traditional brick façade, this charming home retains the timeless appeal of its Victorian origins while providing comfortable accommodation suited to modern family life. The welcoming sitting room offers a great place to relax, with generous proportions and plenty of natural light while the adjoining dining area creates the perfect setting for family meals and entertaining alike. The kitchen is well-appointed with ample storage and worktop space.

Upstairs, the property offers three well-proportioned bedrooms, one with a private en-suite, along with an additional family bathroom, making it an ideal home for first-time buyers, growing families or those looking to upsize.

Outside, the enclosed rear garden provides a private space to enjoy the warmer months, whether relaxing with a morning coffee or entertaining friends and family. A particular advantage for a property of this era is the private driveway, providing valuable off-road parking. Conveniently positioned within easy reach of Dereham's shops, supermarkets, schools and leisure facilities, the property also benefits from excellent road links to Norwich and the surrounding Norfolk countryside.

A characterful Victorian home offering generous accommodation, off-road parking and an excellent location, making it a superb opportunity for buyers seeking period charm with modern convenience.

We love how convenient everything is – you can easily walk into Dereham while still enjoying a peaceful setting.

Dereham

LOCATED IN THE MIDDLE OF NORFOLK

Nestled in the Brecklands, Dereham is a classic country market town with Georgian architecture and more recent developments.

In the eighth century, Anna, King of East Anglia's youngest daughter, founded a nunnery and prayed for a miracle during a famine. Two deer appeared daily, providing milk. When a huntsman tried to capture them, he was killed after being thrown from his horse, believed to be divine retribution. This event is depicted on a town sign at the entry to Butter Market from the High Street.

Today, Dereham boasts a twice-weekly market on Tuesdays and Fridays, numerous independent shops, and free parking, making it a great spot for an afternoon browse. Notable landmarks include the Mid-Norfolk Railway, running 1950s railcars to Wymondham Abbey, the Grade II listed Dereham Windmill, and Bishop Bonner's Cottage, the oldest building in town, established in 1502.

Nearby attractions for heritage enthusiasts include Gressenhall Farm and Workhouse, Castle Acre Castle and Priory, and the National Trust property Oxburgh Hall, all within a short drive.

For dining, try Spice Fusion curry house or The George Hotel, Bar and Restaurant, known for its excellent accommodation, food, and award-winning drinks. Brisley, 6.5 miles away, hosts The Brisley Bell, a highly acclaimed pub, while The Old Dairy in Stanfield offers artisan bread and produce.

With good local schools, a leisure centre, and a golf course, Dereham and its surrounding villages provide an ideal blend of Norfolk country living with easy access to Norwich and the coast at Wells-next-the-Sea, just 22 miles away. Discover this Norfolk gem.
