LAND

The property sits in approximately two acres of fields and paddocks with dry stone wall and post and rail boundaries. There is a useful outbuilding which is situated at the bottom of the garden.

OUTBUILDING

Accessed via a pedestrian door from the bottom of the lawned garden, the first room benefits from a wealth of light with triple aspect windows to the front, side and rear elevations with part-corrugated, Perspex roof line. A step-through doorway then leads into the second room, which again, has windows to both the front and rear elevations and a pedestrian access, double-glazed door to the side elevation which leads out to the bottom paddock.

GARDENS

Externally to the front, the property is approached via a gated, shared driveway which belongs to the subject property and the single neighbouring property having a right of access over. The driveway sweeps across the front of the garden providing a wealth of off-street parking, turning and then leads to the detached, timber garage. The views from the top of the garden are most exceptional with panoramic views across the Colne Valley countryside. As the photography suggests, the front garden of the property features various tiers with a fabulous, stone flagged patio, ideal for sitting out and enjoying the views. Steps and a pathway then meander through flower and shrub beds, past a lawned area with well-stocked, raised sleeper beds. The gardens then continue down the Indian stone flagged steps to a further patio which is a great space for alfresco dining and barbecuing, with twin timber and glazed access doors into the garden room/studio and then the gardens extend onto the fabulous lawn, as depicted by the aerial photography. The lawn then seamlessly blends into the Colne Valley countryside. There is a hardstanding with a greenhouse and a seating area, dry stone wall and post and rail boundaries and access is given into the outbuilding with a five-bar, pedestrian gate leading to the bottom paddock.

GARDEN ROOM / STUDIO

Access from the bottom patio via twin, timber and double-glazed doors, this versatile space can be utilised in several ways. With a decorative dado rail with panelling beneath and a panelled ceiling with ceiling light point, the room has ample plug points in situ and takes full advantage of the position of the property with a superb, open aspect view across the Valley. The room could be utilised as a garden office, hobby room or music room.

SUN TERRACE

The sun terrace is accessed from the open-plan dining kitchen room and features an Indian stone flagged patio with attractive, wrought iron posts and railings. There is an access gate to the side of the patio which then leads to the steps descending to the lower patio and main lawn. There are external lights and a pathway with steps leads up the side of the property to the shared drive.
