Occupying a discreet and highly desirable position within York's historic cultural quarter, this exceptional mews house is offered with no onward chain. With over 1,300 sq ft of striking contemporary accommodation, combining impressive proportions, dramatic natural light and rare practical advantages, all within moments of York Minster and the very heart of the city.

The property is centred around an outstanding open-plan kitchen, dining and living space extending to more than 33 feet in length, creating a superb environment for both entertaining and everyday living. Large windows and the striking double-height living space above enhance the exceptional sense of light and openness throughout, while the stylish kitchen is complemented by a separate utility room and ground floor WC. The overall design creates an atmosphere rarely found within city-centre homes, with the extensive glazing and open architectural layout giving the property an airy and sophisticated feel throughout the day.

To the first floor are two particularly generous double bedrooms, including a superb principal suite with en-suite shower room. Bedroom two benefits from direct access onto a private balcony enjoying views towards the historic city walls, while the dramatic galleried landing overlooking the living space below further enhances the home's architectural appeal and sense of volume.

A particularly valuable feature of the property is the private garage, an increasingly rare luxury within central York,
