DESCRIPTION

A well-presented and maintained country home together with outbuildings and land, forms a very versatile small holding with plenty of scope for equestrian or general livestock rearing, with the addition of large garaging and workshop space providing a number of further potential uses.

The accommodation is characterful with exposed timbers and stain-glass windows, and features a gallery landing and two en suite bathrooms, as well as two reception rooms and an open plan kitchen/ dining room.

ACCOMMODATION

Upon entering the property, a hallway with separate cloakroom, leads through to the triple-aspect sitting room, with multi-fuel stove and French doors out to the patio. Beyond, the dual-aspect, open-plan kitchen/ dining room offers a fantastic space for family gatherings with exposed timbers and timber paneling. The kitchen area offers oak wall and base units, dual Butlers sink, Rayburn Royal and space for further appliances whilst the dining area provides ample space for 6-8 seat table, suitable for entertaining. A study lies to the southern end of the property, offering a versatile reception room. An adjacent hallway gives access to the front of the property and patio.

Stairs rise to a gallery landing above the kitchen, providing access to both spacious bedrooms. Each room benefits from built-in wardrobe and ensuite bath/ shower room with internal stain-glass windows. Both rooms offer views across the garden and paddocks and the addition of Velux windows to enhance the natural light.

OUTSIDE

The garden offers well-maintained lawns bordered by a stream and flower/ shrub borders to either side. Immediately to the front of the property is a delightful south-westerly facing paved patio with views across its own land.

Adjacent is the stables with tack room and feed store, with the large barn/garage lying beyond the western end of the plot.
