6 Fairview Road is an attractive Edwardian villa arranged over four floors, offering two double bedrooms and generous, flexible living space. The property has been thoughtfully opened up to maximise light from its southerly aspect, with both the house and rear garden enjoying excellent sun exposure.

The layout provides versatility, with potential to reconfigure the lower ground floor to create a third bedroom with en-suite, home office, or studio (subject to the necessary consents).

The accommodation includes a bright sitting room with bay window and far-reaching views, a separate dining room, and a well-fitted kitchen with access to the rear garden. The lower ground floor also incorporates a utility area and shower room.

Upstairs, the principal bedroom benefits from southerly views and a walk-in wardrobe, alongside a family bathroom. A spacious second bedroom occupies the top floor, enjoying dual aspect light and useful storage.
