

Spa Cottage, Anslow Road, Hanbury, DE13 8TJ

Nestled within the tranquil village of Hanbury and overlooking idyllic rural views is Spa Cottage, a quaint detached countryside cottage showcasing a wealth of original character throughout, three bedrooms and a charming walled courtyard garden enjoying a sunny west facing aspect. Originally dating back to the 1700s, Spa Cottage has been maintained to a superb standard as well as having more modern upgrades including a modern kitchen, a beautifully refitted bathroom and two new wood burners, with the roof having also been re-done in 2024. A porch with glazed roof and quarry tiled flooring opens into firstly a cosy sitting room featuring panelling and a wood burning fireplace, leading in turn to the characterful dining kitchen also having a wood burning fireplace. To the opposite side of the cottage is a second reception room, with stairs rising to an third bedroom/ideal home office, and two double bedrooms to the first floor benefit from use of the refitted family bathroom and a cloakroom to the master. Outside, a charming walled courtyard garden lies to the fore of the cottage, providing a lovely private space to enjoy the peaceful setting and sunny west-facing aspect. Spa Cottage is serviced by UPVC double glazed windows and LPG central heating.

Spa Cottage lies on the idyllic rural borders of Hanbury, a charming and popular rural village home to amenities including a public house and restaurant, a Church, a cricket club and playing fields. The thriving community centres around the Memorial Hall, where a variety of sporting and community events for all ages are held throughout the year, and the beautiful setting is renowned for walking, cycling and outdoor pursuits, having both the picturesque Derbyshire Dales and Cannock Chase reachable in a short drive. The village resides within the catchment area for the Needwood Church of England Primary in Newborough and the Mosley Academy in Anslow, both of which feed into John Taylor Academy in Barton under Needwood which maintains an Ofsted 'Outstanding' rating. The John Taylor Free School is also within an easy drive.

Further convenience facilities can be found in Tutbury where there are an array of traditional pubs, shops, cafes and the historic Tutbury Castle, and the market towns of Uttoxeter and Burton on Trent offer supermarkets, shopping centres, train stations and further everyday amenities. The property is within easy reach of various commuter routes such as A515, A38 and A50 and the international airports of Birmingham and East Midlands both lie within a comfortable drive.
