The property has been thoughtfully extended to provide spacious and adaptable accommodation, currently arranged as two bedrooms with a separate dining room that could easily be utilised as a third bedroom if required. Well maintained throughout, the bungalow offers comfortable living space with a welcoming lounge, fitted kitchen and family bathroom, making it ideal for downsizers, retirees or those looking for a home with flexibility for visiting family and guests.

Externally, the property continues to impress with ample off-road parking, a detached brick built garage and attractive, low-maintenance gardens. The private rear garden enjoys a good degree of seclusion and has been designed for ease of upkeep, featuring paved seating areas, established planting and mature hedging. An additional garden area located beyond the garage provides further outdoor space and offers potential for keen gardeners, storage or recreational use.

The location is a particular feature, being situated within a quiet and established cul-de-sac whilst remaining conveniently placed for local amenities. The popular Biddulph Valley Way and surrounding open countryside are just a short distance away, providing excellent walking routes and opportunities to enjoy the outdoors.

A versatile semi-detached bungalow in a desirable location, offering scope for three-bedroom accommodation, attractive gardens, garage facilities and the added benefit of no onward chain.
