DESCRIPTION

Brough House is a superb three-bedroom family home set centrally within the sought-after village of Thorverton. The property consists of a dual-aspect sitting room, generous kitchen/dining room with separate utility, three spacious bedrooms and a family bathroom. The first floor features wonderfully high ceilings adding to the spacious feeling within the property.

To the rear of the property is a large outbuilding which offers potential for a workshop, studio or many other possibilities, tucked in behind this is the rear garden which is mainly paved although bordered with mature plants and shrubbery. The property is set back from the others along Bullen Street, giving excellent privacy and a front garden which makes for a real suntrap given it's southerly aspect.
