THE PROPERTY

A Freehold former nightclub located in Willway Street just moments from East Street with excellent access to both the Harbourside and City Centre. The property occupies a 0.19 acre footprint with 7957 Sq Ft accommodation predominantly over the ground floor with a small mezzanine level. We understand the building was rumoured to be an 18th century prison and we are informed it was once a malting house for a local brewery and was converted into the Courage's Social Club in circa 1982 and has been used thereafter as a nightclub with 6am licence for many years but is no longer trading and offered with vacant possession.

Tenure - Freehold

THE OPPORTUNITY

RESIDENTIAL DEVELOPMENT OPPORTUNITY | STP

The property is located in the Bedminster area, which is seeing intense change and development with several notable schemes having been recently completed such as Factory No.1 | City & Country at the former Wills Tobacco factory on East Street. There is also multiple large scale regeneration projects in their early stages adjacent to the property, such as the former Park Furnishers site that has been allocated for development and the wider Whitehouse Street Regeneration scheme. Over the coming years the plans will see the construction of multiple tall buildings and a mixture of residential, commercial and retail in the immediate vicinity.

There is scope for a wide range of both residential and mixed use schemes with the property being suitable for both flats or townhouses.
Any future scheme would be subject to gaining the necessary consents but interested parties will note that no recent planning applications of this nature have been sought on the property.

COMMERCIAL USE

The property would suit continued use a nightclub with 6am licence or other commercial use subject to consents.

REDUCED PRICE FOR AUCTION

The property was previously listed with respected agents with an asking price of £2m and now has a reduced guide price for sale by auction

BUYER'S PREMIUM

Please be aware all purchasers are subject to a £1,500 + VAT (£1,800 inc VAT) buyer's premium which is ALWAYS payable upon exchange of contracts whether the sale is concluded before, during or after the auction date.

GUIDE PRICE

An indication of the seller's current minimum acceptable price at auction. The guide price or range of guide prices is given to assist consumers in deciding whether to pursue a purchase. It is usual, but not always the case, that a provisional reserve range is agreed between the seller and the auctioneer at the start of marketing. As the reserve is not fixed at this stage and can be adjusted by the seller at any time up to the day of the auction in the light of interest shown during the marketing period, a guide price is issued. This guide price can be shown in the form of a minimum and maximum price range within which an acceptable sale price (reserve) would fall, or as a single price figure within 10% of which the minimum acceptable price (reserve) would fall. A guide price is different to a reserve price (see separate definition). Both the guide price and the reserve price can be subject to change up to and including the day of the auction.

RESERVE PRICE

The seller's minimum acceptable price at auction and the figure below which the auctioneer cannot sell. The reserve price is not disclosed and remains confidential between the seller and the auctioneer. Both the guide price and the reserve price can be subject to change up to and including the day of the auction.
