NEW BUILD BUNGALOW IN CENTRAL SWANLAND LOCATION

Ideally suited for applicants looking for a downsize with all the convenience a modern bungalow can offer.

The development of just one single dwelling is currently nearing build completion and offers a potential purchaser the opportunity to secure a highly specified home with the potential to make a number of key specification choices, tailoring the dwelling to their own tastes and requirements.

Attractively positioned within an enviable environment off Westfield Lane, the accommodation to the single floor level will offer a commitment to well-planned and stylishly designed living space maximising natural daylight and plot views.

The one off opportunity will benefit from a striking contemporary design with a number of cutting edge specification choices to complement its modern styling.

The generous and well specified living space will briefly comprise; A reception hallway, the heart of the home remaining an open plan space that combines a kitchen, dayroom and dining area - all taking advantage of the garden and front facing outlook. Large bi-folding doors lead onto the patio terrace and bring the garden seamlessly into the house.

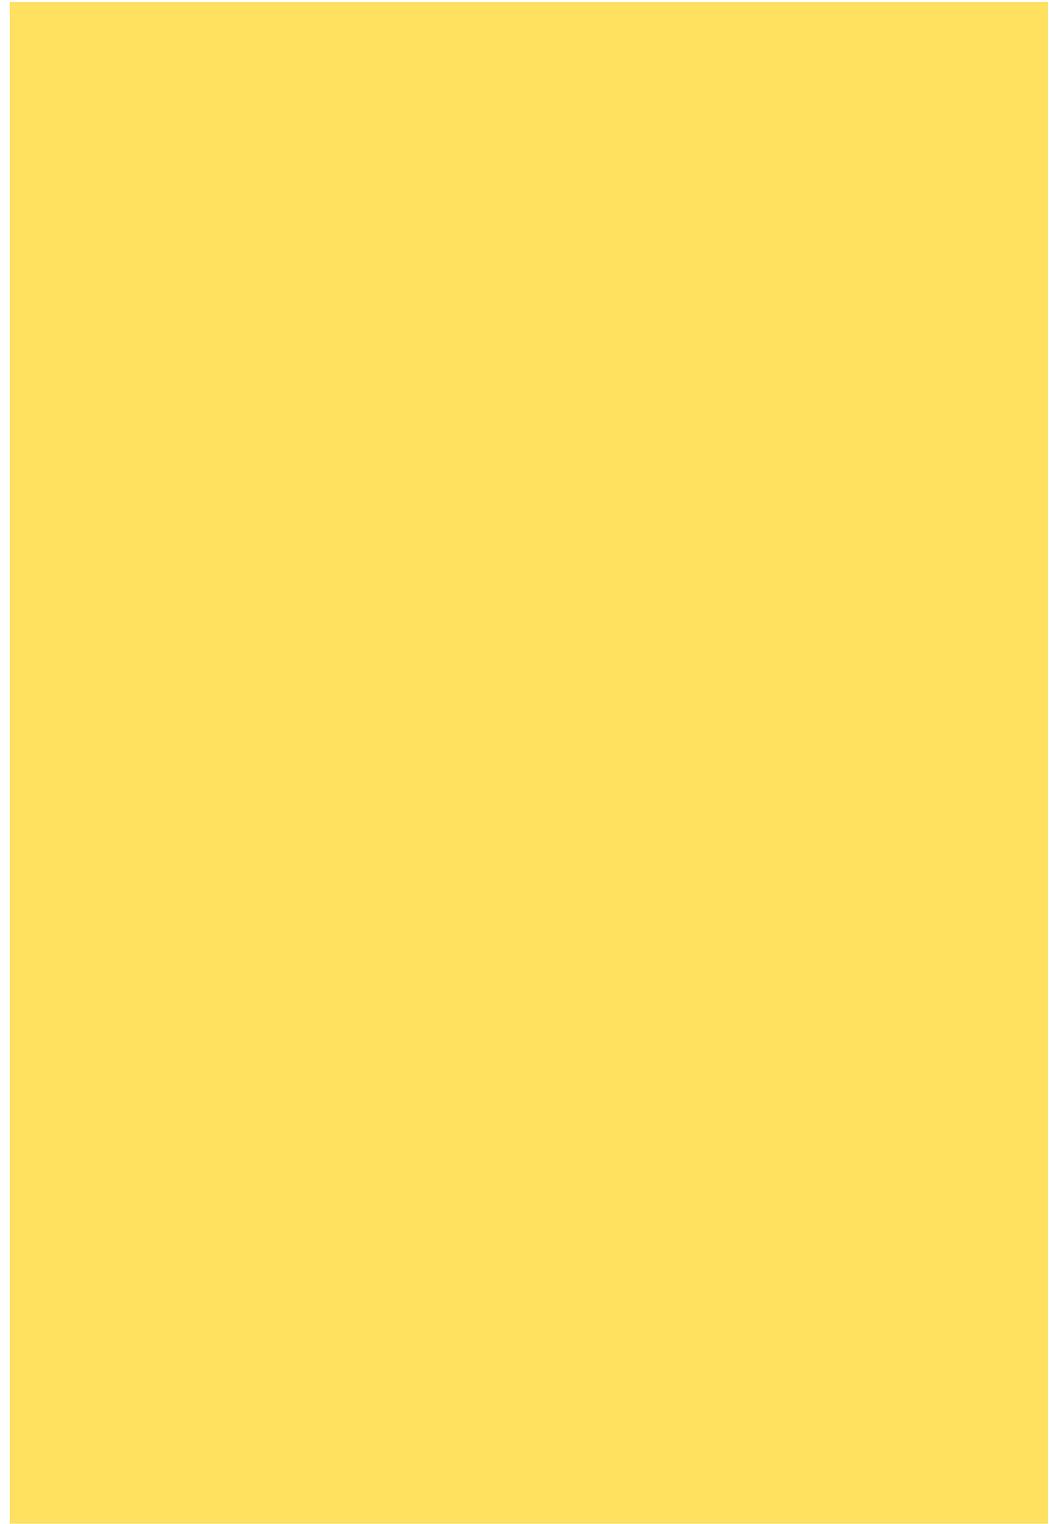

An open hallway space offers further flexibility and provides access to a principal suite with shower room, a further double bedroom and main bathroom.

Externally the dwelling occupies a private and discreet location with entrance drive with ample parking provision, carport and manageable gardens.

PRIVATE AND ACCOMPANIED VIEWINGS ARE AVAILABLE BY APPOINTMENT ONLY.
