IF YOU LIVED HERE...

You'd step through the door and into a home that feels fresh from the first glance. Newly renovated throughout, the finish is clean and understated, with pale flooring, soft neutral walls and a lovely sense of light running from room to room. The open plan kitchen, dining and reception room is a particularly inviting space, with enough room to cook, eat, host and properly unwind. The kitchen is neatly arranged in a sleek modern style, creating a sociable central room that feels bright and easy to live in.

The principal is a generous double, while the second bedroom offers welcome flexibility as a guest room, nursery or study. Set on the raised ground floor of this Victorian conversion, the apartment blends character with a crisp contemporary finish, while the practical upgrades including the full rewire, new plumbing system, new boiler and new sash windows bring real peace of mind. With no onward chain, it is ready for its next chapter.

WHAT ELSE?

Forest Gate station is close by, so the Elizabeth line will have you across London with ease.

You've got the open greenery of Wanstead Flats within easy reach, perfect for morning walks, weekend runs or a quiet moment in the fresh air.

Forest Gate has a lovely independent feel, with a growing choice of cafes, pubs and local spots to settle into. Off street parking is a real bonus around here, making day-to-day life that bit simpler.

A WORD FROM THE OWNER...

"I renovated this flat as a real passion project. Living locally, I wanted to avoid the standard 'grey box' finish and craft a home to the exact standards I'd want for myself. It's been completely renewed behind the scenes with all-new electrics, pipework and a new boiler. For finishes, I chose details I genuinely love: my favourite Farrow & Ball colours, Silestone worktops and beautiful kit-kat tiles. My absolute favourite thing is the light. Being east and west-facing, you get the morning sun with your coffee in the kitchen, and the sunset flooding the bedrooms in the evening.

The street has a lovely mix of families and genuinely welcoming neighbours. Forest Gate gets better every year, and you are spoilt for choice locally. Wild Goose Bakery is our go-to for bread, and Joyau is brilliant for natural wine. Gio's does amazing pizza, while Fiore specialises in homemade pasta and an incredible set menu. To unwind, we regularly use E7 Movement for yoga and their sauna. A walk on Wanstead Flats is perfect in any weather, usually followed by a pint at The Holly Tree or Forest Tavern. Finally, being a five-minute walk from the Elizabeth Line changes everything; it's easily London's best transport line. I hope the new owners will be very happy here."
