Having a wealth of period features this quirky individual grade 2 listed ground floor flat certainly doesn't disappoint.

Available for those looking for an investment or first buy this flat really does have a huge amount of charm and character.

The kitchen has oodles of character with a central island workstation that incorporates an electric cooking hob and a period style fireplace that really reminds you of its heritage.

Steps from here lead down to a rear lobby area that incorporates a cloakroom with w/c and a door to a room that is currently in use as a temporary spare bedroom but lends itself well to a study or even a gym room.

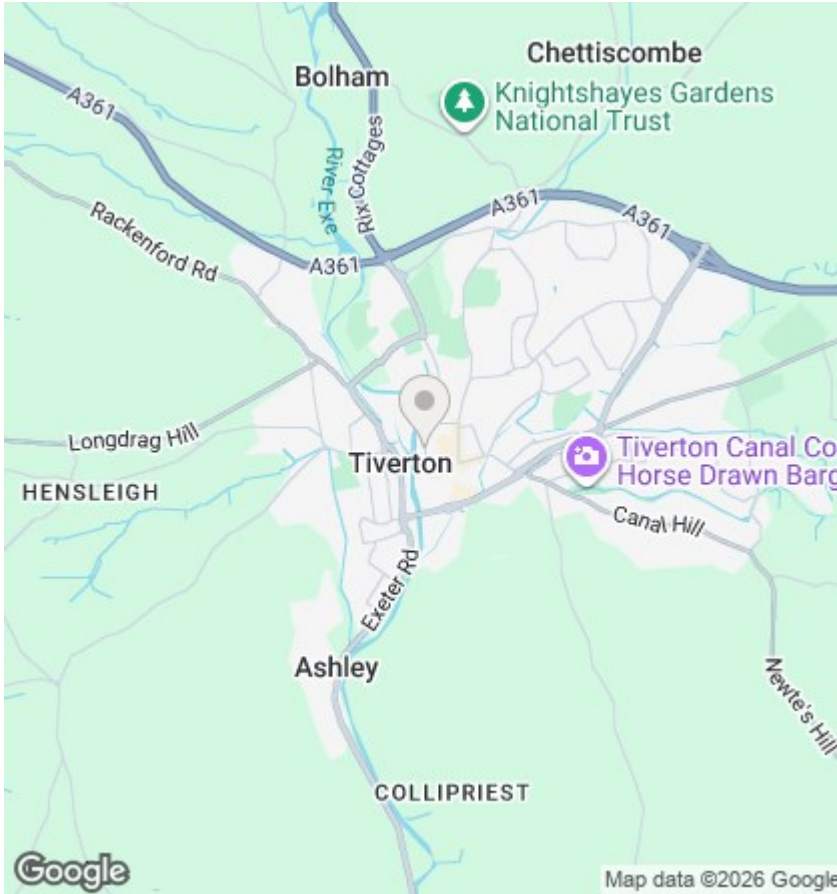

Stairs then lead around and up to the living room which is a stunning room brimming with character, a particular feature is the fireplace which is a great focal point and also the decorative ceiling.

The bedroom is of good size and has a window to the front and also has an ensuite shower room adjoining.

The property has been updated with a new heating system in 2024 which has made a significant difference to the previous energy rating.

In all this is a wonderful opportunity to purchase a property with a bit of Tiverton history to it.

Services: Mains electricity, gas, water and drainage.
