Set within the picturesque Swiss Valley, this double-fronted stone cottage combines character, charm, and generous accommodation in a tranquil and scenic setting. Its attractive stone façade gives an immediate sense of warmth and tradition, while the surrounding woodland backdrop and elevated views create a truly idyllic atmosphere.

Stepping inside, a central dining hall offers an inviting introduction to the home and leads through to the sitting room, where a bay window floods the space with light. The inglenook fireplace adds a cosy focal point, and double doors open directly onto a rear courtyard, ideal for relaxing or entertaining.

The modern kitchen is fitted with stylish units and provides space for a breakfast table, with a stable door opening to an enclosed side garden —perfect for morning coffee or casual dining. A separate utility room and downstairs cloakroom add to the home's practicality. Upstairs are four comfortable bedrooms and a family bathroom. The principal bedroom enjoys built-in wardrobes and en suite bathroom featuring both a bath and a separate shower.

Outside, a spacious driveway provides ample parking and leads to a single garage. The rear garden is elevated, private, and enclosed, with a lawn and mature planting creating a peaceful retreat. From the lower courtyard, there is side access into the garage for convenience.

Enjoying a prime position close to beautiful walks through Norton Woods, the property is within easy reach of Clevedon Secondary School and All Saints Primary School. Excellent transport links offer quick access to Bristol City Centre via Failand or the M5 motorway, and the much-loved Old Inn family pub is just a short stroll away.

Charming stone cottage in Swiss Valley offering spacious family living, woodland views, private gardens, and easy access to Bristol.
