About This Property

Tucked away from the roadside, this charming and renovated terraced home blends period character with contemporary style, retaining some of its original features while benefiting from a series of thoughtful modern updates. Perfectly positioned close to Mapperley's excellent nearby amenities and frequent bus services to Nottingham City Centre.

Stepping inside, you're greeted by high ceilings and bright neutral décor. The two spacious reception rooms offer flexible living options - the front featuring an attractive period-style fireplace, while the rear benefits from a feature gas stove (currently capped).

The modern galley-style kitchen has been refitted with sleek cabinetry, integrated cooking appliances and has space for freestanding white goods alongside tiled splashbacks and marble-effect worktops. The bathroom also sits downstairs and has marble-effect shower board to the walls alongside a three-piece contemporary white suite.

Upstairs, there are two generous double bedrooms, neutrally decorated with large Georgian-styled windows.

Outside, the property enjoys a low-maintenance courtyard.
