Location

Flore is a village and civil parish in the Daventry district of the county of Northamptonshire. Within the village there is a village shop with a post office. Refill shop with an in-house coffee shop, Millennium village hall, Brodie Lodge playing field and The White Hart public house. There are bus services to Northampton and Daventry.

All Saints Church dates from the 13th century and the non-conformist church was begun in the 17th century on the site in Chapel Lane, which is now occupied by the United Reformed Church, the present building dating from 1880.

Ground Floor

The property is entered via a panelled door into a dining room with a front-facing window, exposed ceiling beam and understairs storage. An inner hallway provides stairs to the first floor and access to the kitchen and sitting room. The sitting room features windows to the front and rear, a window seat and a reclaimed brick fireplace with slate hearth.

The kitchen is fitted with wall and base units, a stainless steel sink, space for appliances, a wall-mounted gas boiler, and a door leading to the garden.

The dining room has a door leading into what was formerly a shop and is now currently used as storage and is ideal to convert to an adjoining annexe or further living accommodation for the cottage. Consists of full power and lighting. There is a separate pedestrian door to the front along with a window and partition wall with a door leading to further storage with a tiled floor and full power and lighting. Door leading to a cloakroom with low level WC, wall mounted wash hand basin, tiled floor and a further door from here leads into the garage which has an electric up and over door, full power and lighting, pedestrian door leads to the garden.

First Floor

The first-floor landing has two windows overlooking the rear garden and access to the loft space, with doors leading to the bedrooms and bathroom.

Bedroom one enjoys windows to both the front and rear aspects and features exposed ceiling beams and a stone fireplace with side plinth. Bedrooms two and three both have windows to the front aspect, while bedroom four also faces the front and includes built-in wardrobes.

The floor is served by a separate WC with a low-level WC, wall-mounted wash hand basin and heated towel rail, and a family bathroom with a panelled bath and shower attachment, separate shower cubicle with Triton power shower, pedestal wash hand basin, heated towel rail and built-in airing cupboard.

Outside

The property benefits from a southeast-facing rear garden, fully enclosed by timber fencing. A paved patio area with two steps leads up to a lawn with well-stocked borders, creating an attractive outdoor space.

The garden also provides pedestrian access to the garage and a covered storage area.
