"Living on Haverstock Road has been such a positive experience for our family. It's a friendly, creative and welcoming community, surrounded by green spaces and great viewpoints. We'll really miss our lovely neighbours, the views of hot air balloons and fireworks drifting over the city. We've put a lot of love into making this house work for us, and it's become a real hub for family life and get-togethers. The open-plan kitchen and living space is perfect for cooking, chatting and entertaining whether it be parties, dinner with friends, children's gatherings or summer evenings spilling out into the garden. It's a home that's great fun to live in and easy to enjoy. It will be hard to leave, but we know this home will offer its next owners just as many happy moments as it has given us. It's a comfortable, characterful home in a great community, a place that's easy to settle into and hard to leave."
