Property Description

Situated within The Observatory on the highly regarded Highcroft Estate, this spacious two bedroom Third floor apartment offers strong proportions, a modern open-plan layout and secure, well-maintained surroundings. The development is known locally for its clean presentation, reliable management and consistent buyer demand, making this property a strong option for both owner-occupiers and investors.

The apartment benefits from an impressive open-plan kitchen and lounge extending to almost seven metres, providing flexible space for living, dining and entertaining. Both bedrooms are double-sized and positioned away from the main living area for improved privacy. The bathroom is well-sized with a full suite, and the central hallway provides good circulation space and storage. The property also includes secure entry and allocated parking.

With Highcroft Park, transport links and local shopping routes all within easy reach, the location combines everyday convenience with a modern residential setting. This is a straightforward, practical and well-proportioned apartment in a consistently sought-after development.
