An excellent opportunity to purchase a deceptive, detached, modern home which has been significantly extended and reconfigured to provide a versatile level of accommodation, perfect for a wide range of prospective purchasers whether it be single or professional couples, young families making use of the local schools or also potentially those downsizing from larger dwellings and looking for a versatile home within a village setting.

The property has seen a general programme of modernisation over the years with contemporary fixtures and fittings and benefitting from UPVC double glazing and gas central heating.

Internally the property provides an initial entrance hall with ground floor cloak room off and an L shaped sitting room with feature log burning stove that links through into an impressive, open plan, living/dining kitchen. The kitchen is of generous proportions and benefits from a southerly rear aspect into a low maintenance garden. The kitchen is appointed with a generous range of units finished in heritage style colours with quartz preparation surfaces and integrated appliances and with its open plan living space is likely to become the hub of the home. To the first floor there are three double bedrooms, all benefitting from ensuite facilities and a good level of integral storage.

As well as the internal accommodation the property occupies a pleasant but manageable, relatively low maintenance plot, tucked away in the corner of a small cul-de-sac setting with a forecourt frontage shared with the adjacent dwellings that encompasses a brick built garage with electric door and parking to the front.

The rear garden offers a southerly rear aspect and again has been landscaped for relatively low maintenance living, providing various outdoor seating areas, a canopied terrace and a useful garden studio which would make an excellent home office or gym.

The property is offered to the market with no upward chain and viewing comes highly recommended to appreciate both the location and accommodation on offer.
