Offers Over £350,000

Dating back to the 1800s, this delightful detached brick and flint cottage is offered with no onward chain and boasts a wealth of character features throughout. Renovated during the 1970s, the property has been well maintained and now offers an exciting opportunity for a new owner to update and personalise the accommodation to suit their tastes. Appealing to a wide range of discerning buyers, the cottage also offers excellent potential to extend, subject to the necessary planning permissions.

A welcoming entrance hall with attractive slate tiled flooring and an exposed brick alcove sets the tone for the property. A cloakroom is conveniently located off the hallway and comprises a vanity wash hand basin and WC. The spacious kitchen/dining room forms the heart of the home, showcasing a striking central chimney breast housing a traditional range, complemented by exposed brick and flint walls. With a range of fitted base units offering ample storage, this light-filled room offers wooden preparation surfaces, ceramic Belfast sink, space for a slot-in cooker and further appliances, creating an inviting space for both cooking and entertaining. The cosy sitting room features a charming fireplace with an inset wood-burning stove, slate tiled flooring and stairs rising to the first floor. A door leads through to the conservatory, where French doors open directly onto the rear garden, creating a seamless connection between the indoor and outdoor spaces.

Upstairs, the landing features an attractive exposed brick wall and provides access to three well-proportioned bedrooms, each benefiting from built-in storage cupboards. The generous family bathroom is fitted with a corner bath, separate shower cubicle, WC and wash hand basin with fitted storage cupboard.

Further benefits include oil-fired central heating, no onward chain and the opportunity to create a truly individual home in a sought-after setting.

This charming period cottage combines an abundance of original character with exciting scope for enhancement, making it an ideal purchase for buyers seeking a characterful home with the opportunity to add their own style and value over time.

Outside

Outside, the property enjoys a pretty front garden enclosed by a traditional brick and flint retaining wall with a wrought iron gate and pathway leading to the entrance. The fully enclosed rear garden is predominantly laid to lawn with well-stocked planted borders, a greenhouse, oil tank and wooden shed. A pathway leads to double gates at the rear, offering vehicular access via Beeches Close, providing valuable off-road parking.

Location

Enjoying a prominent position in the heart of the thriving village of Ixworth, the property is within easy reach of an excellent range of local amenities, including village hall, recreation ground, a doctor's surgery, schools, a village shop, takeaways and two public houses. The historic market town of Bury St Edmunds is approximately 7 miles away, while Stowmarket and Diss, offers a mainline rail service to London, making the village well placed for both everyday convenience and commuting.
