Denise White Estate Agent Comments

A highly versatile two-bedroom semi-detached home, arranged over three floors and occupying an enviable position on Nab Hill Avenue, Leek, with a substantial tiered rear garden and off-road parking.

This particularly interesting home offers a quirky yet highly practical layout, with generous accommodation arranged across three levels, making it an excellent choice for a couple or family seeking flexibility, additional living space and plenty of scope to make the property their own.

On the ground floor, an entrance hallway leads into a spacious and versatile lounge, featuring a log-burning stove and windows overlooking both the front and rear aspects, with pleasant views across the garden. Also accessed from the hallway is the fitted kitchen, which provides a good range of storage and workspace, with views over the rear garden and a useful, cleverly arranged layout.

The lower-ground floor is where the property really comes into its own. A further full-length reception room mirrors the proportions of the lounge above and benefits from double doors opening directly onto the garden. There is also a shower room and a useful utility area. This level offers considerable versatility and could lend itself to a variety of uses, including an additional living room, guest accommodation, hobby space, home gym, games room or potentially a bedroom area, subject to the necessary requirements. The combination of a reception room, shower room and utility facilities provides genuine flexibility for modern family living.

To the first floor are two well-proportioned bedrooms and a further family shower room. Bedroom Two is a particularly comfortable room with ample space for a double or king-size bed, while Bedroom One enjoys the front aspect and features a characterful bay window. The principal bedroom also benefits from a separate dressing area, previously forming a third bedroom, creating a generous bedroom suite with a walk-in-wardrobe feel.

Externally, the property boasts a substantial, multi-level rear garden, extending down towards North Street and Westwood Track. Arranged over four distinct levels, the garden includes an initial paved terrace adjoining the lower-ground reception room, ideal for outdoor dining and entertaining, followed by lawned and further patio areas. There is also a useful garden shed. The garden offers an abundance of potential for landscaping and could be transformed into a fantastic outdoor space for families, entertaining or simply enjoying the generous amount of greenery and privacy on offer.

To the front, there is off-road parking for one or two vehicles, together with a paved frontage providing convenient access to the property.

Overall, this is a genuinely individual and versatile home, combining well-proportioned accommodation with an exceptional amount of additional space and a substantial garden. Its flexible three-storey layout offers buyers plenty of opportunity to adapt the property to suit their individual needs, while its location on Nab Hill Avenue provides convenient access to the amenities and attractions of Leek.

Location

Known as the 'Queen of the Staffordshire Moorlands', Leek is a former textile town with a long and fascinating history.

The unspoilt town centre offers a refreshing alternative from modern shopping malls and has a wealth of independent shops, including former silk mills housing antique and reproduction pine centres, as well as traditional and contemporary furnishings.

Delicious local produce can be found in abundance at traditional butchers, bakers, greengrocers, delicatessens and cafes. Leek is also home to speciality producers of condiments, confectionery, preserves, wine, whisky, craft beers and the traditional Staffordshire oatcake.

Traditional markets abound, both indoors in the beautifully restored Victorian Butter Market and outdoors in the Market Place, offering everything from general goods, antiques and collectables to fine foods and special 'Totally Locally' Sunday markets. And when it comes to wining and dining, you can choose from a tempting selection of cafés, real ale pubs and restaurants.

Further afield, you'll find the unique, tooth-like rock formations of The Roaches, Rudyard Lake with its picturesque setting and narrow gauge railway and Tittesworth Water, a popular and accessible attraction for visitors of all ages.

Why We Love This Home!

We love this home for its fantastic versatility and the sheer amount of space it offers. The three-storey layout gives families plenty of options, while the lower-ground floor is a real standout feature — offering a further reception room, shower room and utility space that could be adapted to suit a whole host of requirements. Whether you're looking for guest accommodation, a teenage retreat, home office, gym, games room or additional living space, this home gives you the flexibility to make it work for you. Add in the substantial tiered garden and convenient location within Leek, and you've got a really individual property with bags of potential.
