Waterside, Ely, CB7 5SH

A substantial detached residence offering exceptionally versatile accommodation, ideally suited to modern family life and a range of changing needs. With generous living space arranged over two floors, the property could comfortably accommodate a large or growing family, multi-generational living, or those requiring dedicated work-from-home space.

The ground floor provides a welcoming living room, well-equipped kitchen, impressive conservatory/dining room, family bathroom and three further rooms which could be used as bedrooms, reception rooms, studies or additional living accommodation. Upstairs, a self-contained-style arrangement comprises a further lounge/kitchen, three bedrooms and a bathroom, providing considerable flexibility for independent family living or guest accommodation.

Occupying a peaceful position, the property enjoys attractive westerly views and spectacular sunsets. The enclosed rear garden is well established, with a variety of mature flowers, shrubs and planting creating a pleasant outdoor setting. To the front, a lawned garden is bordered by a hedgerow, while a gated driveway provides access to a substantial garage/workshop.

With its generous proportions, adaptable layout and tranquil setting, this is a particularly versatile home that needs to be viewed to fully appreciate the space and possibilities it offers.
