Maury Road, N16

The ground floor layout is designed around a feeling of connection and community. At its heart is a industrial style stainless steel kitchen, designed to a professional standard, which flows seamlessly into a central dining area. Glazed doors pull natural light deep into the home and open directly onto the private south east facing garden, creating a smooth indoor outdoor transition for hosting and dining. A separate living space provides an intimate retreat to unwind. Tucked away on a peaceful road within an established local community, the property is situated moments from the vibrant energy of Stoke Newington High Street.
