Location

Little Hereford is a small village with facilities including a village hall and church and is a short drive into Tenbury Wells and historic Ludlow is easily accessible. The property enjoys a tucked away location well away from main roads.

Accommodation

Large canopy porch with stable door opening into entrance hall with oak floor and feature fireplace with woodburning stove.

Kitchen/dining room has dual aspect with four folding doors to front patio and a window overlooking orchard, oak floor and ample room for large table and chairs and a range of handmade units, including a range cooker and fridge.

Utility room again with dual aspect, oak floor and a range of units with wood block work surfaces. Also housed in here is the Firebird oil fired boiler which heats domestic hot water and radiators. Door into cloakroom.

Sitting room has a window to rear and double doors onto paved seating area and this then opens into a useful study or occasional downstairs bedroom with a second cloakroom with wash hand basin and WC in white.

First floor landing has a large window to rear elevation overlooking the orchard and door into airing cupboard.

Bedroom one is a lovely double with this fantastic view. En-suite bathroom with a suite in white of WC, wash hand basin and panelled bath.

Bedroom two is a large double with window to frontage with this fantastic view, fitted wardrobe and then a single third bedroom. Adjacent is the house bathroom having an attractive suite in white of high-level WC, pedestal wash hand basin, panelled bath with shower over.

Outside

The property is approached over a gravelled driveway through electrically operated gates onto a gravelled parking area which sits in front of a detached double garage with adjoining workshop to the rear, both with power and lighting.

Sitting to the side and to the rear of the garage block is a further gravelled parking area and a pretty garden area with a central lawn, raised borders and a low fence to rear elevation taking in a view over the orchard. There is an attractive walled garden sitting at the front of the property, this is south facing and there is a partly covered paved seating area directly near the house, gravelled pathway, lawned garden, topiary boxed hedging and well established borders.
