76 Castle Road, Salisbury, Wiltshire, SP1 3RR

£400,000 Freehold

About The Property

A superb modern townhouse set over three floors, part of a small development situated to the north of the city but within walking distance of the city centre, Victoria Park, South Wilts Grammar School and the local Co-op store. Benefits include two parking spaces, oak flooring to the ground floor, a wonderful conservatory extension, gas central heating (including new Vaillant Combi boiler) throughout, triple glazing, including a brand new composite front door. There is an easy maintenance garden to the rear and the property is offered in good order throughout.

The house is set behind a picket fence with hedging and there is a pathway to the front door with further paving and gravel areas. The rear garden is laid to paving for easy maintenance, with raised flowerbeds, shrubs, garden shed, timber fencing to sides with access gate to parking. Capacious hut with electricity installed. The garden has a westerly aspect.

To the rear of the property are two allocated parking spaces.

There are no service charges levied in respect of the communal access area and no such charges are anticipated will be incurred for at least the next 3 years.
