LOCATION

Succoth Avenue is nestled in the heart of Murrayfield, one of Edinburgh's most distinguished and desirable residential areas. Renowned for its grand villas, mature tree-lined streets, and peaceful ambience, Murrayfield blends the appeal of a tranquil, leafy suburb with the convenience of close proximity to the city centre.

Succoth Heights enjoys an especially quiet and private setting, tucked just off Corstorphine Road. Though shielded from passing traffic, it remains ideally placed for access to key transport links and everyday amenities. The nearby areas of Roseburn and Haymarket offer an excellent selection of independent shops, cafés, and restaurants, while the vibrant West End and charming Stockbridge are also easily accessible.

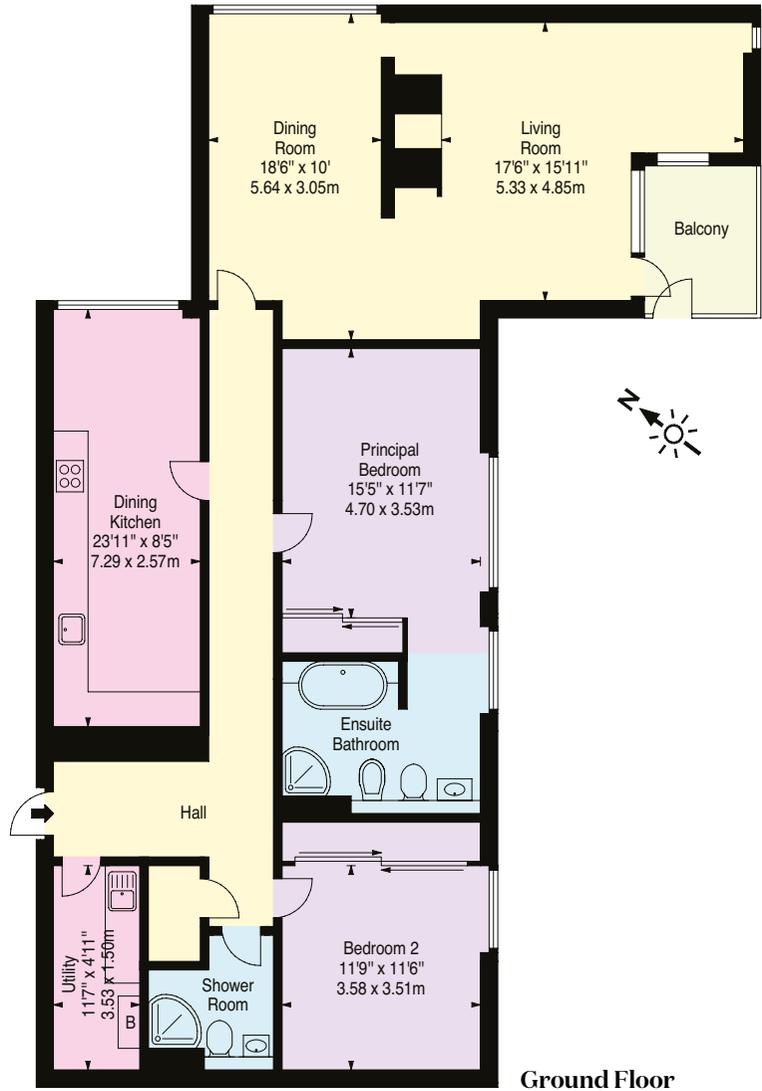

The area provides a wealth of leisure and outdoor opportunities, including Murrayfield Golf Club, the iconic Murrayfield Stadium, and the open green spaces of Roseburn Park. The Water of Leith Walkway, a picturesque route for walking and cycling, connects seamlessly to the wider city.

Travel connections are outstanding. Haymarket Station offers swift rail services throughout Scotland and beyond, and Edinburgh Airport is just 15 minutes away via the A8. The City Bypass and motorway network are also within easy reach, making this an ideal base for commuters.

Families are well served by a range of excellent schools in the vicinity, both independent and state, including St George's School for Girls, The Mary Erskine School, Stewart's Melville College, and Fettes College – all known for their academic distinction.

This is a rare opportunity to enjoy the best of both worlds: peace and privacy in a prestigious setting, with the vibrancy of the city just moments away – a truly exceptional location in one of Edinburgh's finest neighbourhoods.
