DESCRIPTION

A charming detached period property, believed to have originally been an older cottage with a Georgian extension added to the front, with two spacious reception rooms and a cosy kitchen with Aga to the rear. On the first floor are 4 bedrooms with views to the front over fields.

ACCOMMODATION

From the front, a Upvc door opens into an feature entrance porch with a second door opening into a good sized entrance hall. An attractive wide staircase rises to the first floor, on the left is a dining room with a window to the front and there is a lovely tiled fire place with hearth and feature cupboards to either side. On the other side of the hall is a charming sitting room, again with an attractive marble fire place with feature cupboards to each side and a window overlooks the front.

The hallway continues to the rear where steps leads down into a lovely kitchen, believed to be the older part of the house and fitted with a range of wood fronted base, wall and drawer units with a gas hob with oven under and a Rayburn set in a recess with exposed brick above. A window overlooks the garden, there is an adjoining utility room with a sink, space for a fridge and freezer and plumbing for a washing machine and at the end is a downstairs W.C and shower cubicle. From the kitchen a door leads down to a very useful cellar, providing a spacious storage area with slightly restricted head height, power and light and a door leads to a back porch providing space for hanging coats and from here a door leads to the garden.

On the first floor, at the top of the stairs is a spacious landing with door leading to 4 bedrooms. To the front are two double bedrooms with windows overlooking fields and there is a single room/office and at the rear is a third double bedroom and a spacious family bathroom with panel bath and shower over, hand wash basin and a low level W.C.
