This three-bedroom property features two interconnecting reception rooms, providing flexible living and entertaining space, together with a good-sized rear garden offering excellent potential for landscaping and outdoor enjoyment. The house now requires updating throughout, presenting the perfect chance for a purchaser to put their own stamp on a characterful period home.

There is also clear scope to extend further, subject to the necessary planning consents, making this an ideal long-term family home opportunity. Offered to the market with no onward chain, the property is well suited to buyers seeking a straightforward purchase and the chance to add value.

This property is conveniently positioned within the popular village of Partridge Green, a thriving West Sussex community surrounded by attractive countryside. The village offers a range of local amenities including shops, pubs, a primary school and recreational facilities, while the nearby Downs Link provides scenic walking, cycling and bridle paths. Partridge Green has a strong sense of community and benefits from excellent access to Horsham, Brighton and the wider South Downs countryside.
