

Petersfield Road, W3

£550,000

Set across two floors on a quiet and pleasant road, this beautifully finished maisonette combines period charm with modern design. It features two double bedrooms (one en-suite), a sleek family bathroom with integrated laundry units, contemporary kitchen and a bright, bay-fronted reception room. There's ample storage throughout. With a share of the freehold, generous space, and an ideal West London setting, this home is perfect for small families, couples and young professionals alike.

Situated on the borders of Chiswick, the property benefits from superb transport links via Acton Town and Turnham Green Underground stations, as well as Acton Central Overground. Families will appreciate its location, within the catchment area for Ark Primary School (rated Outstanding by Ofsted).
