Property Introduction

Originally a cottage to the rear with a barbers shop at the front, this four bedroom terraced Grade II listed character cottage dates back to the 1800's and oozes character in every room.

The property has been lovingly updated and restored over the years by the vendor and on the ground floor comprises of a lounge with character features having a large picture window letting in lots of natural light, a breakfast/dining room with a wood burning stove, a kitchen and a ground floor bathroom. The entrance door to the front opens to a corridor that runs from the front of the property to a door at the rear which opens to the rear garden and the corridor is a useful space for shoe and coat storage. To the first floor there are four bedrooms, one bedroom having a mezzanine reading nook. The rear garden is south facing and a real escape, you wouldn't believe the cottage is in the centre of the town and it offers a sunny and secluded place to sit, read and relax. Parking can be found within the town on the street and there are also several car parks around the town as well.

Location

Penryn is an historic market town located at the head of the Penryn River with a varied selection of niche retail shops as well as convenience stores, Post Office, cafes and Public Houses. The train station provides a regular service to the Cathedral City of Truro where there is a main line rail link to London Paddington. The expanding Tremough University is situated on the edge of Penryn whilst Penryn College is easily accessible via the numerous bus routes serving the town.

The harbour town of Falmouth is about two miles distant with a wider range of specialist shops and high street stores, high quality restaurants and bars to cater for every taste. There are many attractions including four beaches and the sailing waters of the Carrick Roads are considered amongst the best in the country. Popular visitor attractions also include the National Maritime Museum and Pendennis Castle. Evening entertainment can often be found at Event Square in the heart of the town or you can choose from a number of films showing at the multi-screen cinema.
