Seths are proud to present this impressive detached family home, located on Bovinger Road. Offering an exceptional amount of space and versatile accommodation throughout, this substantial property is perfectly suited to families seeking a comfortable home with room to relax, entertain and enjoy everyday living.

The property boasts three reception rooms, providing flexible spaces for formal dining, family gatherings or a dedicated home office, alongside a generous kitchen/diner that forms the heart of the home. A conservatory offers an additional reception area, ideal for enjoying views of the garden throughout the year. With five well-proportioned bedrooms and five bathrooms, the property provides excellent space and convenience for larger families or those who enjoy hosting guests.

Externally, the property benefits from a large private garden, offering plenty of space for outdoor entertaining, family activities and relaxing during the warmer months. A double garage further enhances the property's practicality, providing secure parking and valuable additional storage.

Combining generous proportions, flexible living space and impressive outdoor areas, this is a fantastic opportunity to rent a substantial family home that offers both comfort and lifestyle appeal. Early viewing is highly recommended to fully appreciate the space and versatility this property has to offer.
