 Guide Price £335,000 - £350,000 ***

A charming two double bedroom split-level maisonette situated on Palace Road in the heart of the sought-after Bromley North, offering approximately 593 sq ft of accommodation, its own private front door and access to a private rear garden.

Arranged over two floors, the property has a real house-like feel. The ground floor features a reception room with an attractive feature fireplace, separate kitchen and bathroom. There is also access leading out to a secluded rear garden measuring approximately 22ft long. Upstairs are two well-proportioned double bedrooms, with useful built-in storage. The property is well presented throughout and combines neutral décor with plenty of individual character, including plantation shutters, feature wallpaper and the striking blue-tiled fireplace.

Further benefits include gas central heating, double glazing, insulated and boarded attic space, potential to extend, and a share of freehold. Palace Road forms part of Bromley's historic New Town/Bromley North neighbourhood, an area which expanded significantly during the Victorian period following the arrival of the railway. The road's name reflects its historic association with nearby Bromley Palace, for centuries a residence of the Bishops of Rochester.

The location is particularly convenient, with Bromley North Station approximately 0.2 miles away, Sundridge Park around 0.3 miles and Bromley South also within easy reach, providing excellent connections towards Central London. Bromley High Street and The Glades shopping centre offer an extensive selection of shops, restaurants, cafes and leisure.
