THE DETAIL_____

Nestled in the desirable NR4 area, just a stone's throw from the University of East Anglia, this impressive, semi-detached house offers a perfect blend of modern living and convenience.

The property comprises four well-proportioned bedrooms, a communal living area perfect for relaxing and socialising, and a fitted kitchen providing ample space for preparing meals.

The accommodation is well suited to student living, offering a practical layout with plenty of room for both studying and entertaining.

Located on Earles Gardens, the property benefits from its position in a popular residential area of Norwich, with access to local amenities, shops and transport links. The location is particularly convenient for students attending the University of East Anglia (UEA).

This property presents an excellent opportunity for a group of four students seeking a shared home in a convenient Norwich location.

Available from July 27.

An early viewing is highly recommended!
