HUNTERS[®]
HERE TO GET you THERE

A beautifully maintained three-bedroom mid-terrace period home on prestigious North Parade, enjoying rare rear views over St Peter's School playing fields and exceptional access to York city centre. Offering spacious accommodation across three floors, this characterful property blends original features with practical modern living in one of York's most desirable residential streets.

The home opens with a welcoming porch and hallway leading into a bright, generously sized living room, complete with a feature fireplace and large bay window. A separate dining room provides excellent space for family meals or entertaining, while the well-appointed kitchen enjoys an attractive rear aspect. Beyond the kitchen sits a useful utility area and a ground-floor WC.

The first floor features two well-proportioned double bedrooms, including an impressive full-width main bedroom with abundant natural light. A family bathroom with both bath and separate shower serves this level.

The top floor offers a versatile third bedroom with rooftop views — ideal as a guest room, home office or teenager's retreat.

To the rear, the property benefits from a peaceful and unusually private outlook across the expansive playing fields of St Peter's School — a standout advantage for a home so close to York city centre.

North Parade is widely regarded as one of York's most sought-after addresses, offering effortless access to the city centre, riverside walks, independent shops, cafés, local amenities and highly regarded schools. York Railway Station is also within easy reach via Scarborough Bridge.
