Enjoying some particularly fine and extensive views is this truly charming and spacious traditional detached house that is tastefully presented and occupies an equally impressive large and established plot.

Step inside the reception hall with stairs rising to the first floor and off which leads an elegant and very well proportioned drawing room which enjoys two front facing bay windows, French style doors opening to the rear garden and a traditional style fireplace. There is an impressive separate dining room which is dual aspect including a front facing bay window. The third reception room is a charming sitting room which has French style doors opening into a conservatory which enjoys views of the delightful garden. Leading off is a separate utility room with further cupboards and space and provision for domestic appliances.

The breakfast kitchen has an excellent range of cream-coloured units with contrasting wood effect work surfaces. Integrated appliances comprise an induction hob with extractor above, split level oven, fridge and dishwasher.

Completing the ground floor is a cloakroom with w.c and a wash basin set into a traditional stand with cupboard.

Off the first floor landing are four bedrooms, all of which enjoy lovely views. The principal bedroom has an extensive range of fitted furniture in addition to its own ensuite which has a spacious shower, wash basin with integrated cupboard and a w.c. The three further bedrooms share the family bathroom having a bath set into a tiled and arched recess, wash basin and w.c.

The house stands back from the lane beyond a mature hedge and a lawned front garden which extends to one side. To the other side lies a spacious drive capable of parking 6 to 8 cars and gives access to the garage. A sun terrace lies adjacent to the conservatory along with a further spacious traditional lawned garden having deep and beautifully stocked established borders. The large garden extends to an Orchard and further lawns. A traditional potting shed is located on a further area of the garden, this could be converted into an office or workshop.

This charming property is situated on the rural edge of the village yet still within easy walking distance to the village centre. Cannock Chase, an area designated as a place of outstanding beauty is an approximate 15-minute walk. The National Trust's Shugborough Estate is also close, along with an excellent Farm Shop and Café. An idyllic area to live yet, so convenient for commuters via the surrounding network of roads, in addition to excellent train services from Stafford, Rugeley and Lichfield.
