

Betsham Road, Maidstone, , ME15 8TX

Guide Price £425,000

GUIDE PRICE £425,000 - £450,000 Set back from the road with a generous driveway providing private parking for up to three cars, is this beautifully presented four bedroom semi-detached family home. The property has undergone a full renovation in recent years and is offered to the market in exceptional condition.

Entering through the front door into a slate tiled porch benefitting from a large cupboard, the entrance hall is nicely presented with wood effect floors and neutral décor leading us to a study followed by a cloakroom. The living room is spacious and light with a bay window and lovely feature fireplace. The spacious and luxurious shaker style kitchen features a modern breakfast bar and benefits from premium stone work surfaces, which leads to a separate dining area. A generous conservatory offers a further reception room leading directly to the garden.

Upstairs, the landing provides access to the four bedrooms, with bedrooms one, two and three being good sized doubles and bedroom four a generous single or dressing room. Bedroom two benefits from a wall of fitted wardrobes. The family bathroom is well-appointed featuring both a bath and separate walk-in shower presented in a contemporary fashion.

The pretty, secure, South-East facing garden is a generous size featuring high quality artificial lawn, a variety of low maintenance planting and multiple seating areas. Direct access to the detached garage, having power and lighting can serve a variety of purposes.

This lovely house is decorated to a high standard and is a perfect example of a turn-key property sure to attract a lot of interest. Your earliest viewing is highly recommended.
