1 Crossways Cottages is set in the heart of Brook, this exceptional three-bedroom, two-bathroom semi-detached home combines timeless Tudor-style charm with beautifully considered modern living. A gabled roofline, exposed timber framing, and herringbone brickwork lend genuine character from the moment you arrive, while an arched, greenery-draped gate leads through to a landscaped, low-maintenance, south-facing rear garden.

Inside, three generous reception rooms are filled with natural light and period detail, including exposed brickwork, decorative panelling, and rustic beams throughout. Two brick fireplaces add warmth and character. One in the dining room housing a wood-burning stove, the other in the living room, flanked by log stores and set beneath beautiful herringbone hardwood flooring; creating a welcoming atmosphere for both family life and entertaining.

At the heart of the home, an open-plan kitchen and dining area pairs sleek cabinetry, marble worktops, and a central island with a farmhouse sink, large range cooker, and wine racks. A thoughtful blend of contemporary convenience and period warmth. A well-appointed utility room with stacked washer/dryer and integrated storage sits just off the kitchen, leading through to a modern downstairs shower room and a downstairs bedroom with skylight, mirrored built-in wardrobes, and French doors onto the rear garden. A side entrance opens into a practical boot room, ideal for coats and sports equipment.

Upstairs, two further bedrooms complete the accommodation. The principal bedroom offers three sets of double wardrobes and access to a versatile bonus/loft room via a pull-down ladder, while the second bedroom also benefits from built-in storage. Both are served by an upstairs bathroom with a walk-in shower.

Including routes towards Witley Common and the Devil's Punch Bowl; the setting offers a genuinely rural lifestyle while remaining well connected.

The village itself has a strong sense of community, centred around Brook Cricket Club. For everyday needs, the neighbouring village of Witley offers a shop, post office, pubs, and doctors' surgery, while the market town of Godalming (around 3 miles away) provides a fuller range of shops, restaurants, and supermarkets, including Sainsbury's and Waitrose.
