A spacious and well-proportioned semi-detached family home situated on the popular Firs Drive, offering generous living accommodation, excellent storage and a substantial rear garden.

The ground floor provides an impressive open-plan layout, with a large through lounge flowing into the dining area and a generously sized fitted kitchen. The kitchen features an extensive range of wooden units, ample worktop space, a central island and room for a variety of appliances. Large windows and doors to the rear provide plenty of natural light and convenient access to the garden.

The property offers multiple bedrooms, including particularly spacious double rooms with extensive fitted wardrobes, alongside two shower rooms. The flexible accommodation makes the home well suited to larger or growing families.

Outside, the property benefits from off-street parking to the front, while the sizeable rear garden provides excellent outdoor space and includes a substantial brick-built outbuilding, offering further useful space and potential subject to any necessary consents.

Firs Drive is conveniently positioned for everyday amenities, with supermarkets, convenience stores and other local services available nearby. The area is well served by schools, including Cranford Primary School and Cranford Community College, with further primary and secondary options throughout the surrounding area.
