John German

A traditional end-terrace home situated within the popular village of Measham, offered for sale with no upward chain and providing an excellent opportunity for buyers looking to personalise and improve a property to their own taste. The paved frontage also offers the possibility of parking a small car. No upward Chain.

Measham is a popular and well-established village situated in the heart of the National Forest, offering a good range of everyday amenities including shops, pubs, cafés and local services. The village is ideally placed for access to Ashby-de-la-Zouch, Burton upon Trent and Tamworth, with excellent road links to the A42 and M42. The surrounding countryside also provides plenty of opportunities for walking, cycling and enjoying the outdoors.

Accommodation

UPVC entrance porch leads into the through lounge and dining room, a well-proportioned open-plan space featuring dual-aspect windows, two radiators and useful under-stairs storage. A rear-facing window overlooks the generous rear gardens, while half-glazed double doors open into the kitchen.

The kitchen is fitted with a range of base and wall-mounted cabinets, roll-edge work surfaces and an inset sink, together with a radiator and access into the ground-floor bathroom. The bathroom is fitted with a WC, wash hand basin, panel bath and plumbing for a washing machine, with full-height tiling and radiator. Stairs lead off to the first floor.

To the first floor are two bedrooms. The front bedroom benefits from a front-facing window, while the rear bedroom enjoys views over the gardens and incorporates a useful built-in cupboard housing the gas-fired central heating boiler.

Externally, the property enjoys generous rear gardens with gated side access, providing plenty of scope for landscaping and creating an attractive outdoor space. They are laid to lawn have brick storage outbuilding.
