AN EXQUISITE COTTAGE

Nestled on King Street in the charming area of Irlams O' Th' Height, Salford, this remarkable cottage, built in 1794, stands as one of the oldest homes in the region, steeped in rich history. Once serving various roles as a school, shop, and weaver's cottage, the property has been thoughtfully extended in 1987, blending its historical essence with modern comforts.

With two spacious double bedrooms and two inviting living areas, this home is ideal for those seeking a blend of historical charm and modern convenience. The beautiful gardens provide a serene outdoor space, perfect for relaxation or entertaining. Improvements have been made by the current owners to the property including double glazing throughout.

The surrounding area has seen significant rejuvenation, with neighbouring houses, once derelict, now transformed into a beautiful row of cottages, contributing to the overall charm of the street. The extensive extension of this property features an impressive kitchen and a modern shower room, perfect for contemporary living.

In summary, this enchanting home offers a unique opportunity for potential buyers looking for a property rich in history, character, and charm, all within a picturesque setting.
