Phoenix House, Ferring Grange Gardens, is a charming late Victorian residence formed from the surviving west wing of the historic Ferring Mansions, ideally positioned close to St Andrews Church. Converted into private apartments in 1949, the building retains a sense of character and history, blended with practical modern living.

Apartment 3 is a well-proportioned, self-contained two-bedroom second-floor apartment. The accommodation is accessed via stairs leading to a spacious entrance hall, which in turn opens into an impressive L-shaped lounge/diner enjoying a double aspect and an abundance of natural light. There are two generously sized bedrooms, with both bedrooms benefitting from fitted wardrobes, alongside a family bathroom and a kitchen/breakfast room with a door providing access to the fire escape.

Externally, the property further benefits from a garage, while additional features include double glazing and attractive views.

Situated in the heart of Ferring village, a variety of local shops, cafés, bars and restaurants are all within easy reach, with the seafront located approximately one mile away. Viewing is highly recommended and can be arranged by contacting the vendor's sole agents.
