The spacious south-facing garden has a suntrap seating areas and mature planting that creates a wonderful sense of seclusion. The detached workshop is a hugely versatile addition, especially as it's connected to the mains and has an internet port. The garden is also wired for lights and power.

While it might be tempting to spend all your free time at home, you'll be delighted to find some fantastic amenities nearby. Start with a stroll to Wanstead Flats, which is ideal for dog-walkers, fitness fans and picnickers.

A WORD FROM THE OWNER...

"This has been a truly wonderful place to call home. From the moment we moved here, it has offered the perfect balance of being wonderfully connected to London while still feeling like a genuine neighbourhood where people know and look out for one another.

One of the things we've loved most is just how easy it is to get around. Whether it's an evening at the theatre, dinner in Soho, or meeting friends in the West End, we can comfortably be in our seats within around 30 minutes. The transport links make London feel effortlessly accessible, while coming home always feels like returning to a quieter, friendlier corner of the city.

We've also loved the wealth of creative and wellbeing activities on our doorstep. The borough regularly hosts free and low-cost events in local libraries and other welcoming community spaces, making it easy to discover something new, meet people, or simply enjoy everything from talks and workshops to arts and wellness activities.
