Whitminster is a village and civil parish in Gloucestershire. It was formerly known as Wheatenhurst, the name being changed officially in 1945. Whitminster is a fast-growing village due to its proximity to the M5 motorway, with Bristol, South Wales and the south Midlands all within an hour's drive, and plans for additional new housing were announced in Spring 2017.

It has one pub, 'The Old Forge', a village shop, a chip shop, a C.O.E primary school, a Chinese restaurant and takeaway, and an Indian takeaway. There is also a recently refurbished hotel and wedding venue, The Whitminster Inn which is run by a family business. They are the only venue in Gloucestershire to provide high quality, English, Chinese and Indian food all under one roof.
