£280,000

2 1

Situated in the popular Bishop Hill area, within the sought-after Postern Close development, this first-floor, two-bedroom apartment is offered with no onward chain. Previously a rental, it now presents an excellent opportunity for first-time buyers or investors, ready to move in. Just a short walk from York's city center and train station, as well as the scenic riverside walks, the apartment is perfectly placed for convenience.

Accessed via a secure communal entrance, the apartment features a bright open-plan living dining space with two large windows that flood the space with natural light. Off here is the well-equipped kitchen, which offers ample storage and workspace, while a central hall leads to two good-sized bedrooms, a storage cupboard, and a modern three-piece bathroom.

Outside, residents enjoy well-kept communal gardens, a bike store, and an allocated parking space. Early viewing is highly recommended.
