Glyn-Jones

Introducing this deceptively spacious mid-terraced house to the market, delightfully positioned within an off-road location, close to the village centre.

Briefly described, the accommodation comprises; two double bedrooms, both of which benefit from recessed wardrobes; a generous living room that gives access to a conservatory; kitchen/breakfast room; contemporary first-floor shower room; and a ground floor cloakroom with modern fitted suite.

A particular feature of the property is its well-maintained 'courtyard' style rear garden boasting direct access into a private garage with electric roller door. There is also an open-plan area of garden to the front.

Additional attributes include gas central heating; uPVC double glazing; porch leading into a sizeable entrance hall; and a loft storage space housing a combination boiler accessed via a fitted ladder from the landing.

The convenient situation of the property is an important characteristic, enabling ease of access to Rustington's comprehensive shopping parade, as well as numerous other local amenities including three primary schools; several pre-schools; Westcourt Medical Centre; and the library. Notably, the picturesque seafront is found within only 1-mile.

Public transport links are also close to hand, with the renowned 701 bus service operating through nearby The Street, as well as Angmering mainline railway station, which provides a regular service to London Victoria, found within approximately 1.5-miles.

Rustington is centrally located on the West Sussex coast almost midway between the cities of Chichester and Brighton, and just south of the A259, which affords a link to the larger neighbouring towns of Bognor Regis and Worthing.
