Description

This listed cottage is a beautiful and full of character two bedroom dwelling situated in the popular village of Stogursey. The cottage benefits from off-road parking, a courtyard and garden beyond.

The property is offered to the market with vacant possession and no onward chain.

- Characterful listed cottage in Stogursey
- Living/dining room with inglenook
- Kitchen with door opening to courtyard
- Shower room downstairs
- Two double bedrooms
- Courtyard with garden beyond
- A car parking space
- No onward chain
- Viewings come highly recommended

THE PROPERTY:

The accommodation comprises a living room/ dining room with a log burning stove, which is only a year or so old, character beams and a door with the stairs rising to the first floor. The kitchen has a range of base and wall units, a Belfast sink, an instantaneous under sink hot water heater, a washing machine and fridge with a door opening to the rear courtyard. There is also a shower room which has an electric shower downstairs.

There are electric Wi-fi radiators throughout the property.

To the first floor are two double bedrooms.

Outside – To the rear is shared access to a car parking space and there is believed to be a right of way across the courtyard to the cottage's own raised patio area along with a separate lawned garden with a range of flowerbeds, having some mature plants, trees and shrubs.

The property is also thatched and a viewing of the cottage comes highly recommended to fully appreciate not only the property itself but its situation within the village.

Much of the furniture and appliances may be purchased by separate arrangement.

LOCATION:

The property is close to the Quantock Hills an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty. Stogursey enjoys a parish church, primary school, village shop, castle and a public house.

The area offers opportunity for many rural activities including golf at Cannington 18-hole golf course and Enmore Park 18-hole Golf Club, fly fishing at Hawkridge Reservoir and sailing at Durleigh Reservoir, also many beautiful walks on the Quantock hills itself. Nearby Nether Stowey is a friendly Quantock Village and has general stores, post office, butcher, pubs, a restaurant, vet, library, GP practice, St Mary's Church and a primary school. The playing field within the village is thriving and used by a number of organised groups and dog walkers. Plans for a new community centre on the field are well advanced. Bridgwater is 9 miles away and Taunton 10 miles, both offering higher educational facilities, leisure and retail amenities. Main line links are available via Bridgwater and Taunton railway stations. Access to the M5 motorway can be gained via junction 25 at Taunton or 23 and 24 at Bridgwater.

MEASUREMENTS AND OTHER INFORMATION All measurements are approximate. While we endeavour to make our sales particular accurate and reliable, if there is any point which is of particular importance to you, please contact the office and we will be pleased to check the information with you.

Code of Practice for Residential Estate Agents: Effective from 1 August 2011:

8. Financial Evaluation: 8a At the time that an offer has been made and is being considered by the seller, you must take reasonable steps to find out from the prospective buyer the source and availability of his funds for buying the property and pass this information to the seller. Such information will include whether the prospective buyer needs to sell a property, requires a mortgage, claims to be a cash buyer or any combination of these. Such relevant information that is available should be included in the Memorandum of Sale having regard to the provisions of the Data Protection Act. 8b These reasonable steps must continue after acceptance of the offer until exchange of contracts (in Scotland, conclusion of missives) and must include regular monitoring of the prospective buyer's progress in achieving the funds required, and reporting such progress to the seller.

The agent has not tested any apparatus, equipment, fixtures and fittings or services and so cannot verify that they are in working order or fit for their purpose. A Buyer is advised to obtain verification from their solicitor or surveyor. References to the Tenure of the Property are based on information supplied by the Seller. The agent has not had sight of the title documents. A Buyer is advised to obtain verification from their Solicitor.

We routinely refer potential sellers and purchasers to a selection of recommended local solicitors. It is their decision whether to use those services. In making that decision, it should be known that we may receive a payment benefit of not more than £150 plus VAT per transaction.
