COBBLERS COTTAGE UPPER STREET

Description

Charming Two-Bedroom Cottage in Child Okeford, Dorset

A delightful two-bedroom character cottage situated in the sought-after village of Child Okeford, Dorset, offering a wonderful blend of traditional charm and comfortable modern living.

Full of character throughout, the property retains many attractive period features, including exposed brickwork, timber beams, traditional fireplaces and original-style windows, while the kitchen and bathroom have been thoughtfully updated for contemporary living.

The welcoming accommodation centres around a particularly attractive sitting room, featuring exposed timber beams, a brick fireplace with wood-burning stove and an abundance of character. The room has a warm and inviting feel, with wooden flooring, feature walls and plenty of space for comfortable seating and entertaining.

The modern fitted kitchen provides a practical and stylish space, with a range of wood-effect cabinetry, integrated appliances, contemporary work surfaces and a glazed splashback. There is also space for a small dining area, with natural light and views towards the garden.

Upstairs, the cottage offers two bedrooms, with the principal bedroom being an especially charming room with exposed brickwork, wooden flooring, traditional-style furnishings. The second bedroom provides flexibility as a guest room, home office or dressing room.

The bathroom is full of character, combining exposed brick walls with modern white sanitaryware and a glazed shower enclosure. A roof window brings plenty of natural light into this charming space.

Outside, the property benefits from a private, enclosed courtyard garden, beautifully planted and offering a surprisingly secluded space for sitting, entertaining and enjoying the outdoors. The garden has a wonderfully established feel, with mature planting, colourful flowers, potted plants and attractive decorative features.
