14 Hynesbury Road, Friars Cliff, BH23 4ER £1,400,000

Mitchells
1963 — TODAY

A classically designed Friars Cliff house of about 2350sqft, built by Barnes in the 1930's with all the style and character of the era. Sympathetically extended and now offering superbly proportioned accommodation that fuses smart contemporary living with the original character features. Brilliantly located just moments from the blue flag beaches at Friars Cliff. Absolutely superb.

14 Hynesbury Road is a stunning home and presented in show home order inside and out. The external elevations ooze class and the current owners have extended the ground floor to now feature a fabulous open plan living space with huge patio doors leading onto the garden. Upstairs are five generous bedrooms set off an impressive landing with both bathrooms having been recently replaced. Equally suited for a growing family or active retirees, this is a really lovely home in a cracking location.
